

Please do not change NJ's Do Not Call List. The list really works. My unsolicited telemarketing call have been virually eliminated. People on this list do not want to give these telemarketers their business. People on this list choose this option. Why would you allow these companies to invade our home again against our will?